DPS R MUN 2022

"Uniting The Ignited Minds"

Day-1 Friday, April 1, 2022

Humari
Sarkar Aaloo
Se Sona
Banayegi

What we believe is right about today
and what we hope
for tomorrow.

Global citizens leading a fair and just society for the future of humanity.

Ab Shuru
Hogi Jung.

Koshish Karne
Walo Ki
Haar Nahi Hoti

We can make things better.
But only if we go forward with our eyes open.

Move to a future with more justice,
more peace, and more prosperity.

“The arc of the moral universe is long, but it bends towards justice.” That may be true, but the arc doesn’t bend on its own.

committee session 2
lok sabha- 7 years of NDA government

The perfect tagline for the session can not be better than," *Now the war begins, ab shuru hogi jung"*

The session started with a heating debate on functioning of BJP government and the session was poaching for agendas and hunting for debating session.

It was way more interseting when Soniya Gandhi carried out with the quesstionnaire prepared for narendra modi and regarded him as BIASED towards hinduism like gits.

Modi was equally opposing and controversial about the various fingers raised on the government.

The committe was rocking after Gautam Gambhir's impactful statement about Rahul Gandhi saying " *humari sarkar aaloo se sona banayegi".*

without a chance of comeback for Soniya, Gambhir came again with a enlightening line about her stating "Koshish karne walo ki haar nahi hoti aur hawa me dhol bajane se koi jeet nhi jata."*

The speaker was shocked after witnessing such a session full of heating debate and full of controversies. it was indeed a fruitful session with each of the leader taking up their points and expressing their points in loud voices and were supported by

Each time a women stands up for herself , without knowing its possibilities . She stands up for all women .

MUN is an interactive educational activity in which student simulate the working of the un or one of its many organs agencies or affiliated bodies .

DPSRMUN provides an opportunity for students to view the problems facing the international community of women from a unique perspective.

The subject areas of the first session were ending violence against womenn and gender equality and women's empowerment .

The topics that caught the chairs attention were -

Violence against women

And the other day to day challenges faced by girls and women

The second session happened to be very informative for every delegate as more amount of factual based information was being delivered by each delegate.

The sub topics discussed in the second session were-

Improvement of women education in Saudi Arabia

Major laws to prevent women rights

Gender equality

History of women

Schemes and organisations to prevent inequality against women

NGOs

Contribution t prevent women crime

1945 rights

There was a very important motion raised by the delegate of Israel about the impact of pandemic on women. Which included very strong points that during the pandemic the country was facing a lot economic crisis that's why men were given more importance than women because the contribution of men in comparison to women is more for the country's economy .

The law will never make human free
It is we who will make the law free

Ready for the battle

NIVA SHAH

The committee speaker is UTKARSH THANWAR. The committee started with the introduction of each and every delegate present it comprises of name, school and previous MUN experiences. No debates were held in the first session. What is Lok Sabha all about? Lok Sabha amends laws and it never discuss about issue which is not a bill. The Lok Sabha is internally AIPPM and externally they are Lok Sabha. AIPPM in easy words is "CHAI PE CHARCHA". There is no fix time for AIPPM it can be held anytime even 3am but for Lok Sabha there is a fix time. Lok Sabha runs by the speaker. Moderator runs AIPPM. How many sessions are there in Lok Sabha? there are three sessions the first one is the budget session and the time duration of this session is 4 months. The second is the monsoon session which is held for 3 months. Third is the monsoon session which has the time duration of 2 months. Similarly there are three hours. The first hour is the question hour in question hour questions are always sent 2 months prior. Second is the zero hour which starts from 00:00 to 1:00. Third is the discussion hour it is never telecasted its always in reports. Who sets ROPs? The people of the Lok Sabha also known as MPs set the ROPs.
